

Dear John, Judy:

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!

It is that time of the year and we wish you best of the holidays full of joy and happiness.

Last year we were together during the holidays. And boy, we had a ball, didn't we? What a great time we had together! That seaside resort, ocean front cottage, basking in the Sun, leisurely walk, good food and wine, New Year Eve's dance party and freelance chit chats! Even your little doggy enjoyed the Frisbee twice a day!

What are your plans for the holidays this year? Going anywhere? We will be spending the holidays at home. My parents are coming over for the first half of the holidays and then Susan's parents in the second half. We are all excited about having them over especially that they do not visit us that often. Last time we saw them was about three years ago.

Reflecting on the past year, it treated us well overall. No complains. Most of our plans came through. We hope we would be saying the same next year this time. There are some rough waters expected at work. We keep our fingers crossed and hope for the best. And, we have faith, as ever.

Please remember us to your parents and give them our best regards.

Again, with best wishes for a healthy, happy and prosperous New Year,
Sam and Susan
